Background

'Quality without compromise' is a core value that drives all Two Hands decisions so, not surprisingly, the wines have received international acclaim from respected wine critics. Every wine in the Picture Series has its own inspiration, and its own take on popular culture. With some old school polaroid imagery by friend and photographer Don Brice and a quirky back label descriptor, the aim is to bring a smile to your face when you pick up the bottle, reminding you that wines should be approachable and of course... fun.

Tasting Notes

Dark black. The nose shows lifted notes of spice, followed by an amalgam of fresh espresso, rich chocolate dark cherries and freshly roasted almonds. The mouth feel is long, dense and coating with luscious licorice, mocha, spice and blackberry flavors. The 2016 vintage has more fruit and tannin's than previous vintages. This wine is ready to drink now, and can also age nicely.
