Background

Xavier and Nicolas Barbet are eighth generation descendants of the Jean Loron family. At the beginning of the 18th century, Jean Loron was already using the parcels in this area. In 2006, the two brothers Xavier and Nicolas bought the small family vineyard attached to the Moulin-à-Vent terroir.

Tasting Notes

A deep robe, marked with beautiful purplish reflections, characterizes this windmill with a nose full of character: with notes of small black fruits (blackberry, blackcurrant and cherry) mingle with intense spicy aromas of pepper and clove. The mouth is distinguished by its beautiful firm but coated tannins, which foreshadow a beautiful future for this wine. The attack is fleshy, the final slightly sharp and very aromatic, with beautiful notes of fruit to the alcohol that come complexity the aromas of the nose.
