Background

Brewer-Clifton is an award winning estate winery from the Sta. Rita Hills, CA. Producing critically acclaimed Pinot Noir & Chardonnay since 1995. Brewer-Clifton winery was founded in 1996 by two friends whose dream was to produce detailed and soil-expressive wines from Burgundian varietals planted on cool-climate vineyard sites in the western end of San Barbara's Santa Ynez Valley. Greg Brewer's and Steve Clifton's wines were met with immediate acclaim. Brewer-Clifton farms 5 monopole vineyards planted exclusively to Pinot Noir and Chardonnay, and produces wines exclusively from these estate holdings.

Tasting Notes

"The 2016 Chardonnay is reared in a neutral barrel, with no malolactic fermentation. It has a full-on expressive nose of fresh grapefruit, white peaches and clotted cream with hints of fresh ginger and nutmeg. Medium to full-bodied, the spicy citrus fruit explodes in the mouth with tons of energy and a racy backbone, finishing long and savory."
