Background

Since 1795, generations of the Ermel family have managed this vineyard with the same passion. Protected from oceanic influences by the Vosges mountains, the Alsace vineyard benefits from a sunny, warm and dry climate, ideal for producing Riesling. Hand-harvested, aged 6 months on fine lees in stainless steel.

Tasting Notes

This dry and distinguished wine with a delicate floral aroma is found in all gastronomy.

Young, it is more fruity, more intense and accompanies seafood, choucroute, etc.

Mature and more refined, it will accompany fish, white meats, poultry.
