Background

Our Story...You would be hard pressed to find two people more Friuli-obsessed than Bobby Stuckey and Lachlan Patterson. Even within Friuli their true passion for the region elicits some curious head scratching and warm Italian chuckles from the humble wine-makers and restaurateurs. Tuscany, sure. Rome, of course. But to be a complete Friuliophile?

Yet that is a title they both wear proudly. After working together at The French Laundry, Bobby as a Master Sommelier and Lachlan as a chef de partie, they moved to Boulder Colorado with the dream of opening a neighborhood restaurant. One fateful trip to Friuli, complete with carsickness from the winding roads of the Alps, traditional Friulian fare, and lots and lots of amazing local wine was enough to seal their fate. They came back to Boulder and opened Frasca Food and Wine, a restaurant dedicated to the cuisine and culture of Friuli. Always digging deeper for Friulian inspiration, Bobby and Lachlan travel to the region several times a year, even taking their entire staff along for a week of eating, wine tasting and general Friuli-worship every summer.

It was only natural that when Bobby and Lachlan dreamed about starting their own wine label they looked first to the beautiful whites of Friuli, and Scarpetta was born.

Tasting Notes

Aromas of cherry, cranberry and subtle spices. On the palate, this blend hits you with a burst of cherry, Japanese plum and earthy flavors. A juicy wine with light tannins and moderate in length. This wine is made from the hill top region of Central Tuscany Aged in stainless steel, cement tanks and oak. 75% Sangiovese, 25% Cabernet, 4% Merlot, 1% Other.
