Background

Driven by a passion for Pinot Noir and a love of land, Don and Wendy Lange founded Lange Estate Winery & Vineyards in the Dundee Hills of Oregon's northern Willamette Valley. The year 1987 marked their first vintage and consisted of the three varietals they embrace today: Pinot Noir, Pinot Gris and Chardonnay. Joined by second-generation Winemaker Jesse Lange in 2004, the family focuses on terroir through small-lot, artisanal winemaking philosophies. Together they set the standard for truly hand-crafted wines.

Tasting Notes

The Reserve Pinot Noir is a meticulous barrel-selection of the most complex and finest wines in our cellar without any self-imposed rules like site, clone, rootstock, soil type, etc. 91 Points - Wine Enthusiast, 91 Points - James Suckling, 90 Points, "Best Buy," "Year's Best U.S. Pinot Noir" - Wine & Spirits
