Background

The Domaine du Meix Foulot has been in the hands of the de Launay family for multiple generations. Paul de Launay took the reins during the 1960s and now his daughter, Agnes, begins her tenure as propriétaire. This is one of the most picturesque of Burgundian domaines: situated high on a hill overlooking the entirety of Mercurey and surrounded by the gently sloping vineyards of the estate. It is one of the most important domaines in Mercurey with an imposing collection of vineyards that capture the full range of this underappreciated appellation.

Tasting Notes

A vigorous wine with dense tannins - aromas of blackcurrant and raspberry - ideal served with red meat, game and strong cheeses.
of a white wine capable of ageing.
