Background

The village of Barbaresco in the Langhe region is the home of Azienda Agricola Musso with its vineyards and winery. This small village was founded many years ago, thanks to the work of an historical family of the place, particularly tied to the life of the countryside since 1698, when the mayor was Giacomo Filippo Musso, followed, seventy years later by one of his descendants, Giuseppe Musso. In this village dedicated to wine, the Musso winery has developed its own history, whose features are often coincided with broader events that have marked the path of the entire society.

Tasting Notes

Barbaresco Pora is a very expressive and grand wine: starting with the color, a red garnet decidedly intact and pure without wavering. The scent is ethereal, very rich in fragrant scents such as cherries, raspberries and wild strawberries along with hints of dried flowers. The next flavors to arrive are spiced with cinnamon and vanilla. The flavor is consistent; full bodied intense enveloping and with fine mature tannins. Barbaresco "Pora" is a classic wine red meat. Traditionally it was approached with a preference for game meat, today its complexity and fullness do well with all red meat cooked in various ways, from roasts, stews and braised local cuisine as well as international dishes.
