Background

10% whole bunch, 40% whole berry, 50% crush and de-stemmed into open top fermenter. Time on skins 15 days with fermentation lasting 10 days. Hand plunged three times daily at pressings, all free run and pressings were combined into tank then racked off gross lees into oak where malolactic fermentation occurred. Bottled with minimal fining and without filtration. 19 months in 1-5 year old French oak puncheons & hogsheads.

Tasting Notes

Deep dark red. Hits the palate with plenty of vibrant primary fruits black cherry and blueberry complimented by fresh acidity. Medium to full-bodied, tightly coiled with plenty of reserved power. Chalky, savoury tannins roll through the mid-palate with a finish that is accented with complexing notes of spice, pepper and freshly cut flower. The finish is very long and refined. Notes of black cherry, blueberry, green and black peppercorn, cut flower, green tobacco and fresh hung meat.
